Door Key Update

Some of those with keys to St. Luke's have experienced problems with getting them to work consistently. The update is that Indian Lock & Key owner, Ken Harvell, came out today and fixed the lock on the north door. No new keys had to be made. The existing keys should work. If they don't, let Office Manager Roseanne McKee in the office know by calling her at 918-336-1212, leaving her a note under the office door or stopping by during office hours 9-1 p.m. Monday – Thursday.

In addition, Mr. Harvell ordered a new cylinder for the chapel door on the south side, which will be installed next week when it arrives.

Mr. Harvell said that the alley door lock is hard to turn, and so he will work on it next week when he installs the new chapel door lock.

Retreat for High School Youth

The Oklahoma Episcopal Dicoese will hold the "Created in the Image" Retreat for high school students on March 27 as part of a series of four separate retreats, held once a year, at which difficult topics our youth experience at school and in society and how our faith frames these experiences will be discussed. The retreats are facilitated by youth ministers from around the Dicocese under the direction of the Director of Youth/Young Adults. The cost is $125 each. Register at epiok.org or call the Diocese to learn more at 405-232-4820. Details of each year's retreat are on the website. Four-year participants will be recognized by the Diocese at their home congregations.
