Kane Reading Program

We have assisted Richard Kane Elementary School for 20 years by providing Reading Mentors to students who need additional help with their reading skills. Because so many St. Luke's people have chosen to drop out of this program for health reasons or moving, we are in desperate need of additional names of church members who will give just an hour a week to these special Kane Kids. Don't worry if you have travel plans or an occasional conflict of times, the important thing is to establish a relationship with your student and encourage them to succeed with one-on-one help.

Please sign up on the note pad which will be in Metcalf Hall after Sunday services, or send an email to Jo Baughman or Robyn at the office, giving your name and email address. This is not the year to let our support of Kane Elementary School fail! Training will be at the end of September, once the number of students who should be helped are reviewed for this year. jybokla@aol.com or office@episcopalbartlesville.org

Found!

A Webber Grill was left behind after the St. Luke's Picnic.
Would its owner please pick it up?
It is currently outside the northeast corner of the church,
(within the masonry-enclosed area.)

Young Disciplines Pitch In To Prepare Rental Home for Sale

A hard-working group of Young Disciples spent much of their weekly meeting last Wednesday night helping get the church's rental home at 821 S. Osage ready for sale. Although the home's interior has been repainted throughout, there was plenty of post-refurbishment debris and "dust bunnies" to clean up.

Fueled by a fried chicken meal provided by Fr. Steve and armed with brooms and shop vacs, the YDs made big progress in preparing for the house sale, a move that was recommended by the vestry and approved last week by the Diocesan Council and Bishop. Thank you, YD workers!

The house is expected to go on the market soon. If you have a tip on someone might be interested in purchasing this home, please contact Church Secretary Robyn Crow at the church office 918-336-1212 or by email her at office@episcopalbartlesville.org. The home will be listed with Chinowith and Cowen Realtors, and Keeli Droege of St. Luke's has volunteered her services as a realtor with 20 years' experience.
