Save the Date! Sunday, May 19th, 4 p.m.

"Music for a Sunday Afternoon"

St. Luke's Episcopal Church

Featuring the trumpet playing skills of Steven Goforth accompanied by organist Dolores McCreary. A concert that can be billed as Musical Mirth and Musings as Steven plays a variety of musical instruments from a shofar, a conch shell, a Civil War era bugle and a variety of brass instruments familiar to most people!

A musical happening for the family. Children are encouraged to attend!

This musical treat is offered for the enjoyment of everyone and there is no admission charge. A free will offering will be accepted for the benefit of the various helping organizations supported by the Outreach Ministry of St. Luke's.

Family Promise

Calling all volunteers! St. Luke's will be hosting Family Promise from May 19-26. Stop by Metcalf Hall this Sunday after the 10:30 service to sign up. If you know where and when you would like to serve, don't wait! Feel free to contact Jen Peterson directly with your preferred role and time slot.

As usual, we will need volunteers in each of these main areas:

- 1) prepare and share a meal with families
- 2) spend 2 hours in the evening after dinner visiting with families and planning some activities or games for kids
- 3) bring your sleeping bag and pillow and sleep overnight at the church.
- 4) supply donations - bring supplies and groceries for families to use throughout the week at Anchor House.

New to St. Luke's? Interested in learning more about how you can make a significant and lasting difference in the lives of homeless families in Bartlesville? Attend a training session, and come volunteer for Family Promise at St. Luke's! Contact Jen Peterson for more info
